

CITY OF JOONDALUP
'YOUNG MUSICIAN OF THE YEAR AWARD'
PRESENTED BY PERTH SYMPHONY

CONTESTANT: AUDREY JARVIS

Audrey, 15, is a talented student of renowned violinist Paul Wright.

She made her solo debut with the Perth Symphony Orchestra at just 11 years old. At 12, Audrey performed in Italy as well as in Amsterdam at the prestigious Concertgebouw after winning first prize in an international competition.

Her notable solo performances include Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso with the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra, Zigeunerweisen at Government House Ballroom, and the Bach E Major and Vivaldi Double Violin Concertos with the Fremantle Chamber Orchestra.

This year, Audrey performed Wieniawski's Violin Concerto No. 2 with MeTSO and was featured in a live broadcast for ABC Radio's centennial celebrations.

A passionate chamber musician, Audrey has performed at the Melbourne Recital Centre as a finalist in the Strike a Chord competition. She has also twice participated in the ACO Academy and in the programs of the Australian Youth Orchestra.

For Audrey, music is a powerful form of self-expression, and she is always eager to share her artistry with others.
