

CITY OF JOONDALUP
'YOUNG MUSICIAN OF THE YEAR AWARD'
PRESENTED BY PERTH SYMPHONY

CONTESTANT:
FLYNN THROSSELL

Flynn Throssell is a promising young flautist with a decade of experience on the instrument. An aspiring orchestral musician and soloist, he is currently in his second year of study at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts. Flynn draws inspiration from renowned flautists such as James Galway, Emmanuel Pahud, and Sebastian Jacot. With a deep passion for his craft, he is committed to making a meaningful contribution to the world of music.